

AT THE RIGHT MOMENT AL MOMENTO GIUSTO

Livio Perozzi is a small-time journalist from the provinces, with a dream to become a successful television reporter. His chance arrives during one of his many wanderings. While reporting on the Tower of Pisa, the tower crumbles in front of his eyes. Thanks to his report, Livio is employed as a special correspondent for an important national news network. However, a clause in his contract states that Livio must present an exclusive within the year; the penalty being the termination of the contract. The terms of the contract are about to expire. Livio invents a false scoop to avoid losing his job, but his solution to the problem is not without consequences.
