

ORPHANED, OWING NOTHING, LOOKING FOR AFFECTION SENZA FAMIGLIA NULLATENENTI CERCANO AFFETTO

Released from the orphanage at the age of thirty, a man dreams of finding his mother. He is aided in his quest by Armando, a folk-magician who uses sawdust in his act. Along the way, he discovers that city-folk aren't very nice, but he opts to stay in town anyway. Armando, having seen and judged the worth of city dwellers and city life, chooses to return to the countryside.
