

THE WORLDLY GIRL LA RAGAZZA DEL MONDO

Giulia's is a poised world, made of rigour and sacred texts, which fiercely excludes those who do not belong to it. Libero's world is the world of all the others, of those who make mistakes, who fend for themselves looking for another chance and who love unconditionally. When Giulia meets Libero, she realizes she can have another destiny, one she will have to choose and build. Theirs is a very pure and unavoidable love story and the two kids embark on an intense period of life together, a choice that for Giulia entails the total exclusion from the Jehovah's Witnesses' world she belongs to. Libero will give Giulia the greatest gift of love: the freedom of belonging to the world, a new, bright world filled with the future.
